JNO. C. KILGO.

Representative Church—The Conference ordered the balance due on pledge made for the Washington City Representative Church, $900, levied as an assessment upon the various districts.

Christian Literature—The Board of Christian Literature presented Report No. 1, which was read and adopted as follows:

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE NO. 1.

With pleasure, we note that the Church has an abundance of good literature. The Missionary Voice, the Methodist Review, the Sunday School periodicals, The Christian Advocate, and the New Orleans Christian Advocate are all superior in arrangement and subject matter. We desire to emphasize the wisdom of their use in the largest possible way. Christian literature is as vital to vigorous religious life as is wholesome food to the sound and healthy body. We must provide for continued development by the use of Christian literature.

We are making an effort to accomplish this end by the publication of our weekly Conference organ, the New Orleans Christian Advocate. Owing to present conditions, it is difficult to finance this excellent paper, which we believe is second to no paper of its kind in the country, and thoroughly worthy of our support. It has become necessary to enlarge the subscription list or levy an assessment upon the Conference.

We recommend that our goal be fixed at one copy in every Methodist home in the Conference and that we make immediate effort to secure a subscription for every ten members in each charge. We also recommend an assessment of $1,500, to be apportioned to the districts as other assessments.

(Signed)

J. W. DORMAN, for Board.

Memorial Home—The following paper was adopted with reference to the Memorial Home in New Orleans, La.:

MISSIONS NO. 1.

We have heard with interest the report of the Memorial Home made by W. E. Thomas, Manager. We recommend that this Conference assume joint management thereof, together with the Mississippi and Louisiana Conferences. The Board of Control is to be composed of thirteen members, seven of whom shall be elected by the Louisiana Conference and three each by the Mississippi and North Mississippi Conferences, the three from this Conference to be one pastor, one layman and one woman, to be nominated by the Board of Missions and elected by the Conference. The budget for the support of the Home is to be $15,000, of which $7,000 is to be collected in the Louisiana Conference, $5,000 from the Mississippi Conference, and $3,000 from the North Mississippi Conference by representatives of the Home.

We nominate to serve for the ensuing year on the Board of Control Rev. E. N. Broyles, Mr. W. E. Stokes and Mrs. T. M. Clark.

Hospital—The Hospital Committee made its report, which was read and adopted as follows, after brief addresses by Dr. T. E. Sharp, Judge Percy Bell and Bishop McMurry:

HOSPITAL NO. 1.

The Main Building of the Methodist Hospital is now nearing completion and it is expected that it will be ready for use early in the new year, provided the Conferences respond promptly with the fulfillment of the allotments made to and assumed by them.

The apportionment to the North Mississippi Conference is $150,000; that to the North Arkansas, $100,000; that to the Mississippi, $50,000; that to the Memphis outside the Memphis District, $160,000; that to the Memphis District, $400,000 in addition to $150,000 already contributed.

The ground for the Hospital cost $100,000, and has been paid for. Besides the $400,000 already paid on the building, it will require $300,000 to equip the Main Building and provide a dormitory for nurses.

Bishop McMurry called a meeting of the presiding elders of the patronizing territory to consult as to ways and means for the collection of funds for the completion of the Hospital. Their report was read to the Conference yesterday and we made its substance the body of our own as follows:

Resolved, That we request the Bishop to call a meeting of the presiding elders who shall be appointed at this Conference at the earliest convenient date after the adjournment of Conference to work out the details of the campaign in each district. This campaign is to be intensive from Dec. 15, 1920, to Jan. 9, 1921, but our obligation is not to be regarded as discharged till the amount from the whole Conference shall have reached $150,000.

Resolved, Second, That we request Bishop McMurry to make as many addresses in the interest of this campaign in the bounds of our Conference as his other duties will permit.

Resolved, Third, That we assure those in charge of this most worthy enterprise of our moral as well as financial support.

We urge our pastors to report promptly to the central office in Memphis, the amount of cash and subscriptions received that the records may be accurately kept.

We recommend the re-election of the following as members of the Board of Trustees: R. A. Meek, R. A. Tucker, J. H. Sherard, Mrs. J. M. Wyatt, W. T. Reeves, T. G. James.

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. W. ROBERTSON, for the Committee.

W. R. LOTT, Secretary.

SPIRITUAL INTERESTS.

The Committee on Spiritual Interests made the following report, which was read and adopted:

If the spiritual life of the Church is judged by its activities, there are evidences of abounding life; if the standard is found in the degree of participation of our people in things called worldly, then we need to remember the days of old, to repent and do the first works over. If we may judge by the reports of the pastors on the Conference floor, all is well. Taking note of all the circumstances, and remembering that the Word of Truth is our guide, we would call our people to prayer and consecration in all earnestness, knowing that if we develop the spiritual life, material things will care for themselves. Therefore, let us seek first the kingdom of heaven, resting assured that secondary things will not be found wanting.

(Signed)

J. H. FELTS,
PERCY BELL,
L. W. CAIN.

Introduced—Revs. Mayfield and Gordon, pastors of the Baptist and Presbyterian Churches of Charleston, were introduced to the Conference.

Robt. Selby, Commissioner for Emory University, took leave of the Conference.

TEMPERANCE

The Committee on Temperance and Social Service made Report No. 1, which was read and adopted as follows:

Such is the stupendous importance of temperance to the welfare of men that we feel the subject can never become hackneyed, nor action upon it by religious bodies untimely until drunkenness is banished from the world. We cannot but feel that the enactment of national prohibition entitles the people of the United States to feel a just pride in their progress; nor can we refrain from expressing to our own State the pride we feel because Mississippi led all the States in the ratification of the Eighteenth Amendment.

But our pleasure at the victory should not lead us to forget that reforms are not completed by the mere enactment of laws. Laws are not self-enforcing. They have little value unless enforced and they can only be enforced through a sound public opinion which demands their execution. Here we might do well to trace the genesis of our present success to our faithful appeals of the ministry of God to the consciences of the people.

Preachers, and chiefly country preachers, have been the beginners and makers of prohibition. The enforcement of this law will only come if the ministry continues to keep the question before the conscience of the people. Really, we have come face to face with a crisis in one of our greatest moral reforms. It is not too much to say that every nation on earth is watching the outcome of our prohibition amendment. Its failure will set back reform for a hundred years. Its success will not only stimulate everywhere those who oppose intemperance on moral and religious grounds, but that success will bring into play a powerful economic factor in favor of temperance. Drunken men or nations cannot compete with those who are sober. We cannot afford to fail.

SOCIAL SERVICE.

The Committee on Temperance and Social Service made the following report, which was read and adopted:

We recognize in the cinema one of the triumphs of human genius. It takes its place with the steam engine, the telephone, and the phonograph as a permanent instrument of human activity, whose use promises not merely to abide but to enlarge with the passing of time. It is capable of wonderful efficiency as an instrument of education, and therefore its proper use is of vital importance. We are told that many of the pictures exhibited are immoral in their character and necessary effects and also that our own State is behind others in the matter of censorship of films, and that due to this dereliction, our own State is a sort of dumping ground for pictures elsewhere forbidden.

This is a matter of so much importance to our children and youth that we believe the condition calls for earnest protest. Therefore, we request our Governor and Legislature to have such laws enacted as will end this condition. Your Committee would further ask this Conference to request the Secretary to call the attention of our law-making body to this matter at the proper time, and to our sentiments on the subject.

Respectfully submitted,

N. G. AUGUSTUS, for Committee.

Credentials—On recommendation of the Glen Allen Quarterly Conference, the credentials of D. R. Wasson, voluntarily surrendered by him, were ordered restored.

NEAR EAST RELIEF.

The following resolution on Near East Relief was adopted:

The Armenians were our valiant allies during the world war. They are of our race and have been an outpost of Christianity from the early days. They are not only in dire need, but are in imminent danger of complete destruction. We believe it is our duty to do all we can to save this remnant of a martyr race.

Therefore, Resolved, That we hereby endorse the Near East Relief and pledge ourselves to lend all possible assistance to those striving to mitigate the sufferings of these people.

Second, That we will appoint committees in our local churches to gather clothes to be forwarded immediately to the headquarters of the Near East Relief, Clothing Warehouse, New York City.

J. W. ROBERTSON,
J. R. COUNTISS.

ORPHANS' HOME

The Committee on Hospital and Orphans' Home made the following report, which was adopted after being read:

The Mississippi Methodist Orphans' Home is doing a great work which appeals to the generous impulses of all our people. We commend the faithful management of Rev. B. F. Lewis and Mrs. S. F. Riley and their corps of assistants. Many repairs have been made on the buildings and considerable sums have been spent for new furnishings for the dormitories.

The finances are in excellent condition, but no pastor should be content unless his charge makes a regular monthly contribution to this worthy institution. We especially urge that this shall be the case during the coming year, lest other matters absorb attention and this great cause suffer embarrassment.

We recommend the re-election of D. W. Babb, Rowan Thayer, and Mrs. W. W. Scales to the Board of Directors.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. MOUNGER,

J. W. ROBERTSON.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

The American Bible Society Board made the following report, which was read and adopted (condensed):

The American Bible Society was organized May 8, 1816, in the City of New York, by a committee of delegates from the thirty-five societies then existing in America, representing all the leading Protestant churches. Its birthday marks an eventful epoch in history. It was decided that the Bibles issued should be without note or comment, the King James translation acceptable to all denominations alike.

This wonderful child of Providence has grown with the years. It now employs 1287 workers in the eleven agencies in foreign lands and 587 in America. Last year it distributed 3,782,309 copies of the Word of God, and it has issued during its history 138,000,000 volumes in more than 150 languages and dialects. It supplies Bibles to isolated or neglected people wherever found, to the Southern mountaineers, to miners, to lumber and construction camps, to Indians, to Alaskans and to all foreign elements coming among us, being supplied in sixty languages in America alone.

These books are delivered at actual cost, or even given away to those manifestly unable to purchase them.

Without the Word of God, our missionaries in all fields would be as helpless as the body without breath. Nor is it less vital to our work at home. Our great church is committed to the support of the American Bible Society and we rejoice in the amount of contributions made by our own Conference.

It is probably too late to observe "The Mayflower Universal Bible Sunday," as recommended by the Society, but we recommend that our pastors secure and distribute the literature of the Society and at some suitable time arrange a day and give emphasis to the imperative necessity and importance of the work of the American Bible Society not only in America, but throughout the world. We also recommend the "Centennial History of the American Bible Society," by Henry Otis Dwight, published by the Macmillan Company, New York. Paper, 50c; cloth, $1.00.

Respectfully submitted,

R. M. EVANS, for Board.

LAY ACTIVITIES

The following report on Lay Activities was read and adopted:

We regret that we are not able to report any special progress among the Laymen since our last Annual Conference. After the great battle and victory in procuring subscriptions for the Centenary Movement there has been a relaxation of effort among our laymen for Church work and an apparent feeling that there is not any more special work needed to be done. Even the collections of the Centenary Fund have not been given due consideration and attention.

At our last Annual Conference the laymen pledged their support and aid toward collecting the unpaid subscriptions to the Centenary Fund then due. Many due pledges to this fund have not been paid, because the pledges have not been properly presented for payment.

Some few subscribers to the fund seem inclined not to pay their pledges, but we call on all of our lay leaders and Minute Men to urge with all their power that there must be no repudiation of these pledges. If the State cannot afford to repudiate, then the Church certainly cannot afford to repudiate any of her pledges.

We suppose that we may safely say that tithing among our laymen is on the increase. The reason for this is the doctrine of Stewardship has been preached, taught and stressed as never before. Many of our laity and preachers are beginning to agree with our great hymnist, Isaac Watts, when he says,

"God formed the deeps unknown,
He gave the seas their bounds,
The watery worlds are all his own,
And all the solid ground."

Or with the Psalmist, who said:

"The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein."

We again urge our laymen to assume all financial affairs of the Church and to relieve our preachers of this part of the work. Our Bishops, in their last Episcopal address to the church, made the following statements: "We find no reason why our laymen, as intelligent as they are, should not take charge of all the material affairs of the church, that the preachers may give themselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the Word, and we exhort our laymen to assume these cares, both for their own benefit and the relief of their preachers." We commend this statement of our Bishops to our laymen for their consideration and guidance and pray that the oncoming year may be one of great spiritual and material progress for the church.

Respectfully submitted,

G. L. JONES, for the Committee.

MISSIONS.

The Board of Missions presented Report No. 2, which was read and adopted as follows:

The extraordinary conditions which confront the church at this time call forth our united endeavor. Facing a new world the church has been shocked out of its traditional routine and lifted to a higher vision and a more daring conception of its mission and responsibility.

The Centenary, by its spirit and results, has interpreted and forecast the new awakening and broader vision of the church. Grateful as we must be for that which has been accomplished, we would be false to the true meaning if we should allow ourselves to be lulled into satisfaction and fail of its higher purpose and possibilities by even a temporary slackening of our energies.

The enlarged program of the General Board has resulted in: (1) The enlargement of our existing mission fields and institutions, the extension of fields and multiplication of missionaries. (2) The opening of a new mission in three countries of Europe and the prospect of a fourth at the opportune moment. (3) A well-defined policy for city missions. (4) A program for solving the problem of the rural church, proposing an accurate survey of home mission fields, to be followed up by intensive cultural policy.

This Board, in co-operation with this policy, has selected a country circuit in this Conference to demonstrate the feasibility of this plan and will endeavor to develop a standard circuit. Our plans also include the payment of expenses of ten of our bright and promising circuit men to the Missionary Training Institute at Junaluska next Summer. The first distribution of Centenary Funds was made last January—$11,100.31 being the amount of the 10% Conference missions returned to North Mississippi Conference. These funds, with the income of the Board from Conference assessments, has been largely used to supplement the salaries of our pastors in needy fields, making possible the occupancy of these fields during this time of unprecedented high cost of living. All this emphasizes the importance of a full collection of Centenary pledges. We cannot too strongly urge the importance of these collections being made thoroughly and promptly, not only from a financial standpoint, but also in order to preserve the confidence of the church in its own ability to do things and for the maintenance of a good morale for the future.

The missionary forces are all deeply interested in the success of the Educational Campaign and promise the fullest and worthiest co-operation.

We endorse and commend the work of the Missionary Secretary, Rev. B. P. Jacob, who has been most zealous and faithful. We ask his reappointment as Missionary Secretary.

We note with pleasure the presence at this Conference and helpfulness of Dr. R. L. Russell, Home Mission Secretary.

We recommend the appointment of W. A. Wilson as Conference Evangelist.

R. A. TUCKER, President,
For the Board.

D. R. Wasson, having passed the examinations for the second and third years, was advanced to the class of the fourth year.

Full Connection—The time for the order of the day having arrived, the Bishop called Question 4—Who are admitted into full connection? J. A. George, N. J. Golding, C. L. Oakes, and Jesse F. Watson were called before the bar of the Conference, were addressed by Bishop McMurry, and after giving satisfactory answers to the Disciplinary questions, were by unanimous vote received into full connection.

Mr. Gause, Field Secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, made a brief address to the Conference.

Conference Date—A resolution proposing to change the date for holding the Conference sessions to an earlier period, was, after some debate, laid on the table.

EDUCATION.

The Board of Education made Report No. 2, which was read and adopted as follows:

Your Board of Education has carefully considered the education-al interests of the Conference and the reports of the educational institutions with which it is connected. We note with interest the continued growth and success of Emory University, which now has five departments in active operation with an enrollment of 958, which taxes its capacity. The report of Robt. Selby, Commis-sioneer, shows gratifying success.

The report of the Department of Ministerial Supply and Train-ing shows an alarming decrease in the number of men entering the ministry and we urge that continued prayers be made that the Lord of the harvest may thrust forth laborers into his vine-yard.

With a deep sense of gratitude, we record the completion of Galloway and Burton Halls at Millsaps College. The school has the largest enrollment in its history. We call attention to the Extension Department of this school, offering free access to its library to all our preachers to whom any book will be sent for the mere payment of postage. A Correspondence Course is also conducted for all who desire to pursue their studies. We congratulate the College upon opening these departments and urge our ministers to use them.

We are gratified at the increasing number of our under-graduates who are completing their course with the Correspondence School of Emory University and we urge all of them to comply with the law of the Church concerning it.

We recommend the appointment of A. S. Brisco as Principal of the Acona High School and of J. S. Duncan as a student in Emory University. We also recommend the appointment of J. H. Holder as Conference Secretary of Education.

We call attention to the remarkable success of T. M. Brownlee, the past four years Commissioner for Grenada College, and extend to him the thanks of the entire Conference for his work, which has resulted in the completion of the Administration Building at a cost of more than $160,000. This building is one of which our entire Methodism may well be proud.

We congratulate ourselves upon the splendid growth and success of Grenada College under the efficient management of Rev. J. R. Countiss. It has an enrollment of 235, which is the largest in its history, and many were turned away for lack of room.

Your Board recommends the adoption of the following paper passed by the Board of Trustees of Grenada College and submitted to the Conference through us:

Whereas, The Grenada College is owned by the North Mississippi Conference and governed by a Board of Trustees elected by this Conference; and

Whereas, Certain valuable improvements, new buildings and real estate have been acquired by the Trustees of Grenada College, thereby incurring indebtedness; therefore,

Be it Resolved by the North Mississippi Conference, upon the request of the Board of Trustees of Grenada College, here now made to this Conference assembled in regular annual session, in accordance with the law of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the City of Charleston, Mississippi, that the Board of Trustees of Grenada College be, and they are hereby, authorized to pledge the faith and credit of Grenada College in the sum of $70,000.00 already expended and to be expended in the discretion of the Board of Trustees of the said Grenada College.

To secure payment of said sum, the Board of Trustees of Grenada College are hereby authorized to execute a mortgage on the property owned and controlled by this Conference in the City of Grenada, Mississippi, conveying the same in trust to secure payment of said sum at a rate of interest not to exceed eight per cent (8%), to be borrowed by the Board of Trustees, or, in their discretion, the said Board of Trustees are hereby empowered to issue bonds for Grenada College, pledging the faith and credit of said College and of the North Mississippi Conference in said sum above named, to-wit: $70,000.00, said bonds to run for a period not exceeding ten years, and bearing a rate of interest not to exceed eight per cent (8%), payable annually, the bonds to be issued in such denominations as may be deemed wise by the Board of Trustees.

The Board of Trustees are empowered to execute a Trust Deed to secure payment of said Bonds on all real property owned by the North Mississippi Conference and by Grenada College in the City of Grenada, Mississippi.

Any suitable person or corporation may be named as trustee in said mortgage, and said bonds may be signed by the President and Secretary of the Board of Trustees and countersigned by the President of Grenada College, and when so issued, the form to be prescribed by the Board of Trustees, all property of this Conference and of Grenada College in the City of Grenada, Mississippi, is hereby bound and pledged to the payment of said indebtedness.

The Trustees are hereby expressly given the power, either to borrow the money in the sum of $70,000.00, or to issue bonds for the said sum, as in their discretion may be best for the interest of the College and the Church.

Your Board of Education would recommend the reappointment of J. R. Countiss as President of Grenada College. We also recommend the election of R. M. Weaver, E. P. Peacock, E. S. Lewis and R. A. Tucker as members of the Board of Trustees of Grenada College.

We recommend the election of W. W. Woollard, W. P. Kretschmar, J. R. Countiss, O. W. Bradley, and W. T. Rogers as members of the Board of Trustees of Millsaps College.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. MEEK, President.

L. P. WASSON, Secretary.

J. H. Holder received the following pledge of support:

Resolved, That we hereby pledge Rev. J. H. Holder our loyal, hearty and brotherly support in his work as Conference Secretary of Education, and that we assure him he may depend on our cooperation in this great work.

S. L. POPE,

W. E. STOKES.

BOARD OF FINANCE.

The report of the Board of Finance was read and adopted as follows:

In view of the need of our Conference Claimants, and of the fact that a great part of our Conference collections are secured on the plea of relief for our superannuates and their widows and orphans, and of the further fact that there will be no appreciable income from our Conference Endowment Fund for several years, your Board feels that an assessment of $12,500 for Conference Claimants is inadequate and that we should have at least an assessment of $15,000.

We ask the re-appointment of J. H. Bell as Field Agent for our Conference Endowment Fund.

We recommend that the General Board of Finance be made Trustee of all funds collected in the future for the North Mississippi Conference Endowment Fund.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension made its report, which was read and adopted as follows:

General Board.

Progress continues to be the watchword of your General Board. The total income from all sources for the year ending March 31, 1920, was $1,324,061.31, about $400,000.00 of this coming from the Centenary, while that of the previous year was $864,326.85.

The Loan Fund Department offers a very attractive investment. Our Christian people so readily place their money in speculative ventures, but it is our privilege to educate them for the greater and safer investment such as this Board offers. The Board of Church Extension is prepared to accept any sum of money, or good property, to pay the investor for life an annuity ranging from 5 to 9 per cent, according to the age of the annuitant. You may render appreciated service by sending the Secretary of the Board the names of persons you feel might be interested in this great matter. Special literature can be had covering such cases. If each member of our Conference Boards would have one or two of such in view, cultivate, prepare and win them. This church-wide evangelization in giving and investing would prove of untold benefit.

The Sunday School Loan Fund does not increase with the progress of the Sunday School in enrollment and contributions to other causes. A campaign of real education is needed here. Last year 161 schools and 28 conferences contributed $1,699.56. The General Sunday School Board has said the birthday offerings shall go to this fund, which amounts to $19,465.41. In your Conference no schools contributed to this fund.

The Architectural Department, under the capable direction of Rev. J. A. Baylor, is making steady progress. Five draughtsmen now assist him. A practical, as well as technical architect, knowing the needs of churches and a keen student of church architecture in its present manifestations, he is amply able to furnish plans for all types of churches. Building Committees should send all their plans to him for suggestions, as he has prevented many costly mistakes already. Skilled architects are in hearty co-operation with him, and his every desire is to be of increasing help in this church building era. Write him, send him your plans, and benefit by his skill."

Conference Board.

We miss Dr. Boaz, our former Secretary, but we welcome Dr. Burgin, his successor, and pledge him our hearty support and full co-operation in the great work of Church Extension.

Your Board recommends that the amount due from this Conference to our Washington Representative Church be apportioned to each presiding elder's district and be paid in three annual installments, one-third each year.

Your Board feels the need of a larger Loan Fund. Our present Loan Fund is $3,625. We need a ten thousand dollar loan fund. It would be a blessing to this Conference if larger and more frequent gifts to our Loan Fund could be had. Money placed in this department will be, throughout the coming years, used to build churches.

Your Board has made the following donations and loans:

Your Board recommends the donation of $500 per year for the next five years to Central M. E. South Columbus, Miss., and we further recommend that Rev. W. M. Young attend the Mississippi Conference and ask their Board for an appropriation of $250 annually for the same number of years. Central Church is to take care in a considerable measure of our Methodist girls in the Mississippi State Woman's College. We think, therefore, that the Mississippi Conference Board of Church Extension should help take care of this enterprise because that Conference has as many girls in this school as the North Mississippi Conference.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Sunday School Board made the following report, which was read and adopted:

Your Sunday School Board, into whose hands is committed the responsibility of furthering the Kingdom of God through the teaching of the Word in our Church schools, with pride and pleasure points backward to its achievements and forward to even greater things for the coming year.

By reference to the year book for the year 1920, it can be seen that the forces of the Sunday Schools throughout the connection are well organized, and the work done is in a more systematic way. The schools of our own Conference rank among the better schools of the connection.

During the year now closing we have made great progress in the Master's work. We call attention to the distribution of Christian literature which is splendid in character and amount. The General Board in its Year-Book shows a net gain in distribution of 27,156 miscellaneous periodicals, 130,495 uniform periodicals, and 216,619 of the graded courses. That we have had our part in this will be shown later on in the report. We recommend that the pastors and superintendents see that their officers and teachers be supplied as far as possible with all necessary books and periodicals to make them more efficient in their work in the schools.

Rev. R. H. B. Gladney, our Field Secretary, has been untiring in his efforts to carry forward this great work. Undoubtedly, this has been the best year of his work in the field. He has introduced the Graded Courses into many schools where these lessons were not already in use. He has held institutes, organized Wesley Bible Classes, Teacher Training Classes, and sent out 20,000 leaflets and ordered 275 books. We can see a brighter day for our Sunday Schools, which means a brighter day for our Church. The Board has re-elected Bro. Gladney and respectfully asks the presiding Bishop to re-appoint him.

The Elementary Department, under the leadership of Mrs. Lester G. Fant and later Miss Ione Mansker, after the resignation of Mrs. Fant, has taken on new life.

The Department of Teacher Training is under the superintendency of Rev. J. E. Stephens. We feel that we have reached a new day in this department. During the year 114 individual students and 14 classes with an enrollment of 204 have registered at the Central office. Two hundred and twenty-nine have received certificates, 14 incomplete diplomas, 2 blue seals, 2 gold seals, and 2 departmental certificates.

We call special attention to the Conference Training School for Sunday School workers held at Grenada College last August and which will be held again the last of next May. At that school 64 registered for work and 49 received certificates. The work was real, constructive, and far-reaching in its effects. It was but the beginning of a greater day for Sunday Schools throughout North Mississippi.

The Board wishes to express its sympathy in behalf of the work done and proposed by the Anti-Saloon League and recommends co-operation with the League in enforcing prohibition laws.

It has been our pleasure to have present and counsel with us Mrs. J. H. McCoy of the Home Mission Board and Rev. J. Lambert Neil of the General Sunday School Board. Especially are we grateful to Bro. Neill for his stirring address at the occasion of our anniversary.

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

The Epworth League Board submitted the following report, which was adopted:

Rejoicing in the privileges and opportunities now before the young people of the Church and appreciating the advantages afforded for the cultivation of a larger life, through the efforts of the Epworth League; we, your Board earnestly appeal to all the pastors and laymen to rally to this cause.

We ask that the Conference accept its part of the work to be done by the Epworth Leagues in the Education Movement, now before the Church, as the Church Schools are, for the most part, to educate our leaders. The Epworth League should be a potent agency in bringing those of college age into touch with our institutions of learning. Also, we ask that our college authorities be diligent in the use of the organization and activities of the Epworth League among the students.

We urge the observance of Epworth League Anniversary Day, the second Sunday in May, with an offering, and that this offering be sent direct to the Treasurer of the Board, to further the interests of the cause.

We commend to you the Epworth League Conference, to be held at Grenada College during the summer, and request that our pastors arrange for their churches to send their most capable young people to this gathering, whether they have a League or not.

EVANGELISM.

The Committee on Evangelism made the following report, which was read and adopted:

We rejoice greatly in the number of conversions and additions to the church membership reported by the pastors, there having been a marked increase over the preceding year. Our Conference evangelists and pastors have conducted gracious revivals of religion in most of our charges. The report of our general evangelist, W. M. McIntosh, is very gratifying, showing the greatest success of any year of his life. We recommend him to the General Board for re-appointment. We also recommend the appointment of W. A. Wilson as Conference Evangelist.

Respectfully submitted,
T. M. BROWNLEE,
T. M. BRADLEY,
W. J. WOOD.

MEMOIRS.

REV. G. W. GORDON

George Washington, son of Jonathan and Naomi Gordon, was born in LaFayette County, Mississippi, January 29, 1855, and died in Aberdeen, Mississippi, Dec. 7, 1919.

He was converted in 1870; licensed to preach in November, 1874; admitted into the North Mississippi Conference on trial in November, 1875; ordained deacon in 1877, and elder in 1879. He served the following charges: 1878, Fulton; 1879-80, Athens; 1881-82, Shannon; 1883, Kossuth; 1884, Jonesboro; 1885, Ripley and Blue Mountain; 1886, Iuka Station; 1887-88, Fulton; 1889, Greenwood and Carrollton; 1890-93, Coffeeville; 1894, Nesbit; 1895, Guntown; 1896-97, Columbus Circuit; 1898, Ittabena and Sidon; 1899, Ethel; 1900-01, Ackerman; 1902-04, Eupora and Maben; 1905-06, Courtland; 1907, Supernumerary; 1908, Myrtle; 1909, Kossuth; 1910, Supernumerary; 1911, Vaiden; 1912, Mantachie; 1913-14, Sherman; 1915, Chester; 1916-19, Noxapater.

Brother Gordon was married January 28, 1876, to Miss Callie Bowlen, of Saltillo, Miss., who died August 15, 1911. On Dec. 27, 1911, he was married to Miss Mattie Morgan of Carroll County. Of this marriage came Sarah, his only child.

Brother Gordon possessed the fundamental elements which go to make a real preacher. He was a converted man. He knew in whom he believed. He was not only born into the Kingdom of God, but he lived in the atmosphere of an abiding experience.

He was a called man, set apart by the Divine call to the ministry he gave himself to it exclusively and became a man of one Book and one Calling.

He read and knew the Scriptures. He had definite ideas as to what they teach. He derived from the Book its great doctrines. His mind took hold upon the truth that the Revelation of God comes to men in the form of great dogmas or doctrines. He grasped these doctrines and so had clear and definite ideas of what he was to preach. And thus he understood why he was in the church to which he gave his life, and he knew that for which his church stood. He not only knew these doctrines, but he believed them profoundly. He could say with the Psalmist, "I believe, therefore have I spoken." He believed that his church had best interpreted the Word of God. He was a profoundly convinced Methodist and could ever render out of the Scriptures a ground for the hope that was in him.

He preached great fundamental things and he did so with great strength and force. He was among the last of the fast vanishing class of preachers who, with clear insight and strong conviction, preach the great fundamental doctrines of the churches.

Another and a greater element of power in him was his personal piety. He read and thought upon the scriptures. He was a man of prayer. He acquired, preserved and enlarged an experience of the deep things of God. With these gifts and acquirements he was, in my judgment, at the time of his end, the most representative man among us.

He was most loyal to his church. He believed in and preached her creed. He went at the behest of her voice to all fields, no matter how difficult. No doubt his faithfulness hastened his death for it is most probable that his last visit to Conference cost his life.

Few men of his ability have had less "recognition," so called, at the hands of the church. He served God without earthly honor and independently of the praise of men.

Conscientious, faithful and unrecognized men constitute the saving element in all human society. They bear the essential burdens in church and state. Verily they have their reward. God knows all.

Brother Gordon was a fond, devoted and considerate husband and father. His home life was in keeping with the high standards of the religion he professed. He was a faithful friend, a good citizen, and a courageous, noble and sincerely honest man. He was my friend.

After serving the quadrennium on the last charge he filled, he went to Aberdeen to attend what was to be his last Conference. All unconscious of the fact that he was fatally stricken, he persisted in going to what was to him the place of duty. Before he could meet with his brethren in Conference session he had to take the bed of sickness from which he was never to arise. A three weeks' struggle with influenza and pneumonia followed, during much of which time he passed the weary painful hours in expressions of joy and praises to God.

To his faithful wife and dear little daughter we extend our love and sympathy, and commend them to the love and blessing of the God whom the husband and father so faithfully served.

N. G. AUGUSTUS, for the Committee.

REV. J. D. NEWSOM.

The Rev. Joseph Duckworth Newsom, son of James Newsom, was born in Louisiana, March 17, 1828, and died in Meridian, Miss., Dec. 18, 1919, aged 91 years, 9 months and one day. He was three times married. His first wife, Sarah A. James, was the mother of all his children, six in number, all of whom preceded the father to the spirit world except one son. Miss Frances James was his second wife and Miss Leila McCracken was his third.

Bro. Newsom was converted in 1839 and was received into the Mississippi Conference in 1848 and served the following appointments: Coles Creek, 1849; Tallulah, 1850; Lake Washington, 1852; Wilkinson, 1853; Bayou Sarah, 1854; Laurel Hill and Barrow's Chapel, 1855; Wilkinson, 1856-7; North Warren, 1858-9; Hilldale, 1860-61; Black Hawk, 1862-3; Holmes, 1864-5; Black Hawk, 1866-7-8; Lexington, 1869-70. At the close of the latter year, the North Mississippi Conference was organized and he was returned to Lexington for 1871-2; Vaiden, 1873; Liberty, 1874-5; Louisville, 1876-7-8-9; Bolivar Station, 1880; Greenwood, 1881; Minter City, 1882; Indian Bayou and Faison, 1883-4; Deer Creek, 1885-6; Friars Point, 1887; Huntington and Mound Bayou, 1888; Duncan and Friendship, 1889; Hebron, 1890; Kossuth, 1891; Sparta, 1892-3; Ethel, 1894; Newport, 1895. He was superannuated in 1896-7-8; served Longtown, 1899; Cedar Bluff, 1900, and was then a superannuate until his translation in 1919. Thus was spent a ministerial career of seventy-one years.

In physique, he was slender, sinewy, supple. He carried no surplus flesh. His was an unabused body, hence his longevity. No stimulant or narcotic had weakened or destroyed a fiber or function of his frame. He realized the necessity of caring for the house in which his spirit lived and worked. With human help, the Spirit may Christianize both body and soul.

There was a quaintness about Bro. Newsom that enriched his own life and others which he touched. Into the darkest situation he would often flash a light that would clear up the most perplexing questions. The brightness of his spirit made the hardest charges more endurable.

Practice of what he conceived to be right kept his moral vision clear. One view of a situation gave him instant decision as to the right, and his course was settled. It never entered his mind to consider his own popularity or the opinion of others. So simple and sincere were his intuitions of propriety and good morals that observers noted wholesome distinctions. His position on moral issues were never in doubt. He became an epistle known and read of all men. His life was a luminous comment on the sanctity of the Sabbath. God had set the day apart and no compromise was tolerable. Joy-riding, games, theaters open on the Sabbath on the pretense of recreation for laborers were shams that stirred his righteous soul.

Worldliness in the Church gave him great concern and drew forth his wise and helpful counsel. There was no middle ground for the Christian, according to his faith and conscience. In the days of the fathers, he would have been called a Puritan. His consistency and conduct and life gave great steadiness to the congregations to which he ministered, as well as to his brethren in the ministry.

His devotion to the cause of Christianity was nothing short of inspiring. He began itinerant work when charges were large and laborous; when luxuries were almost unknown and comforts were scarce. Churches were poorly built and poorly furnished, generally very uncomfortable. But this diligent servant sought out such places for more than half a century that he might tell the people of Jesus and His love. Roads were bad, churches far apart, bridges few, accommodations for shelter and food most uninviting. Often rooms were open and fireless with slight covering for beds. In addition, the salary was small—too small for providing adequately for the necessities of life. However, he served uncomplainingly, like his Master. It was a mark of his ministry, as of that of the Master, that "the poor have the gospel preached unto them."

His intuition of right and his readiness to carry out his convictions; his devotion to Christ; his unswerving and unceasing fidelity to duty made him a notable man and minister of Jesus Christ. The impress of his godly life will not soon pass from those to whom he ministered and with whom he associated.

His body was laid to rest in the city of Meridian to await the resurrection after services conducted by Rev. H. B. Watkins and other ministers present.

IRBY FOX HOLLAND.

Rev. Irby Fox Holland was born in Walthall, Mississippi, Feb. 27, 1888, and died in Nashville, Tenn., on May 6, 1920. He was well born, his father and mother being of the sturdy stock whose integrity was above reproach. He attended the Clarkson Academy, which was located near the place of his birth, and after several years of close application to his books he entered Vanderbilt University and took a theological course, graduating from that institution in 1913.

He was converted in early boyhood and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Soon after his conversion he began to take active part in religious services, conducting prayer meetings and leading in other devotional services. Later he applied for license to preach, which was granted under the administration of Rev. E. S. Lewis, then the Presiding Elder of the Winona District. In the fall of 1913 he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection of the North Mississippi Conference and remained a faithful member of our brotherhood until the Master said, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant," and bade him rest from his labors.

He was happily married to Miss Lucy Taft of Nashville, Tenn., on Sept. 24, 1914. To this union two children were born, both of whom, with his faithful wife, survive him.

He served the following charges: Lambert, 1914-15; Macon Circuit, 1916-17; Gunnison, 1918-19. He was granted the superannuate relation at the close of 1919. Soon after he was assigned to Gunnison for the second year he contracted influenza while ministering to others of his town who had fallen victims to this dreaded disease. He was quite ill for several weeks but was convalescing rapidly when a call came to bury a little Italian child. He knew he was weak, but the case was pathetic and he could not resist. The exposure was too much for his enfeebled body and he relapsed with pneumonia. He lingered in the twilight of two worlds for nearly five weeks before he passed the crisis and began to recover. But before he was able to be out again it was discovered that pulmonary trouble had developed and then came the final battle for life. The physicians advised him to go to North Carolina to a sanitarium. No sooner was it suggested than his members and friends were making up a purse of several hundred dollars to defray his expenses. Later he was moved to McGee, Mississippi, so that he could be near his relatives and intimate friends. The Gunnison charge paid his salary regularly for the entire year, and in addition paid all of his hospital expenses. These were expressions of the love and admiration of those whom he had served and who knew him best.

Brother Holland was a gifted preacher. No young man of our Conference had brighter prospects for the future. His preaching was of the evangelistic type, and his revival efforts resulted in splendid success. His sermons showed careful preparation and were delivered with unction and power. He possessed a simple, child-like faith in God. During his last illness in his letters to the writer he expressed an unfaltering trust in God, and his greatest comfort was in communion with Him and in the study of His Word. When the dews of the last evening were upon his brow his heart was still warm with the fires from God's altar. He desired to live and continue his work, but said repeatedly, "If it is the Lord's will, I am ready to go." In death his faith was triumphant. His body was laid away in the Nashville cemetery to await the resurrection morning, and his soul mounted on the wings of the angels who came to carry him home.

"Soldier of Christ, well done;
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Savior's joy."

V. C. CURTIS.

REV. J. W. PRICE.

John William, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Baker Price, was born at LaGrange, Missouri, Dec. 30, 1842, and passed to his reward from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Likens, at Somerville, Tenn., on the evening of June 22, 1920. While he was yet an infant his parents moved to Russellville, Ky., where he grew to manhood. He attended college at Bowling Green, securing an education far above the average for that time, and becoming fixed in habits of study which remained with him to the end.

In 1869 he was married to Miss Mary E. Valentine, who preceded him to the great beyond by some three or four years. To them were born six children, three of whom survive, Mrs. C. E. Wright of Greenwood, Miss., Mr. Will Price of Corinth, Miss., and Mrs. Margaret Likens of Somerville, Tenn.

Though he was licensed to preach at the early age of twenty, his heart was set on the study and practice of medicine and he was for some six years a "beloved physician." However, there was constantly with him a vision of human needs which could only be met by the Great Physician, and his loyal soul could not long content itself with merely ministering to the bodies of men. So, in the fall of 1868, he forever laid aside the practice of medicine and enrolled his name with the knights of the saddlebags, becoming a member of the Louisville Conference. Here he served Hopkinsville, Henderson, Auburn and Bowling Green Circuit. In 1879 the condition of his health was such that he sought a milder climate, coming to the North Mississippi Conference. In his new field of labor he at once took high rank, having been placed in charge of the Greenville District in his second year. He later served Water Valley, Columbus, Starkville, Greenwood, Holly Springs, the Grenada District and other important charges, and was everywhere beloved for his genial, kindly spirit and honored for his loyal devotion to the cause of righteousness.

His pastorates were notably evangelistic, gracious revivals attending his ministry of the Word. He was never happier than when engaged in leading souls to Christ. Only a few weeks before his death he gave active assistance to a brother minister in a revival. His preaching was orderly, lucid, appealing. His pathos was deep and sincere, moving the hearts of those who listened. On occasions, he was genuinely eloquent. Few ministers excelled him in the knowledge and appreciation of music. He loved to sing, taught his children to sing in home and church and always had the best choir in the town where he preached.

In the scope of his nearly four-score years there rose many a sunlit upland and stretched many a shadowy vale, but whatever the roads or the weather, his face was set forward, his eye was fixed on the goal and his heart beat with courage unflinching and optimism unfailing. His was a glad gospel, bringing peace to his own heart and joy to others. It made him cheery in the social circle and sweet and tender in his home. It fell to his lot to give battle in the contest of his State with the open saloon, and liquor men dreaded the mettle of his blade. Threats did not daunt him nor opposition discourage him. He was faithful and true.

He often spoke of the nearness of heaven. To him death did not mean a long journey and the crossing of a great river. In his own phrase, it is only "Good-bye here and Howdy yonder. Life fades into immortality as twilight fades into evening, time and eternity blending as blend the river and the sea, so that none may mark the boundary where river ends and sea begins." Even as he had spoken, it came to pass and he quietly fell on sleep and woke up with God. May his mantle fall on his sons in the gospel and his benedictions abide with his children.

J. R. COUNTISS.

DR. T. C. WIER.

Thomas Coke Wier was born December 15, 1827, in Greene County, Alabama. His father, Rev. William Wier, was born in Ireland on June 5, 1793. His family came to America in 1795 and settled in South Carolina. Here William grew to manhood and here he was married to Miss Elizabeth Lipscomb, a sister of Dr. Dabney Lipscomb, who spent the greater part of his long and useful life in Columbus, Mississippi. William Wier and wife joined the Methodist Church, he from a Presbyterian and she from a Baptist family. They finally settled in Greene County, Alabama. William Wier was licensed to preach in 1829 and in 1830 he was admitted into the Methodist traveling connection. He was one of that faithful band who wrought mightily under God to establish Methodism in Alabama and in some of the border counties of Mississippi. He died in the faith in 1853 and with his wife sleeps in the Odd Fellows Cemetery in Columbus, Miss.

Thomas Coke Wier graduated in 1849 from LaGrange College, Alabama. Later from this same college he received the degree of Master of Arts. After his graduation he remained in this college two years as principal of the grammar school and as the assistant in the Department of Languages. In the spring of 1854 he graduated from a medical college in Charleston, South Carolina. While pursuing his medical studies, Dr. Wier was deeply impressed with a call to the ministry. He was licensed to preach in the fall of 1854 and a few weeks later, in December, at Talladega, he was admitted into the traveling connection in the Alabama Conference. His first appointment was Montevalle Station. He remained at Montevalle for two years, which was then the time limit. Dr. Wier had no house of worship here and but few members. At the close of his second year there was a gracious revival and on the last Sunday of the Conference year a new Methodist Church was dedicated by Dr. T. W. Dorman of the Alabama Conference. His second appointment was Wesley Chapel, Mobile. In the second year of his pastorate here he was happily married, May 4, 1858, to Miss Mary L. Baker, whose father, Col. R. A. Baker, was a prominent layman in Alabama Methodism. In 1859 Dr. Wier was stationed at Livingston. In 1860 he was Presiding Elder on the Macon District and continued in this appointment until 1862, when he became a chaplain in the Confederate army. He was chaplain for two years and then he was agent for the Soldiers' Tract Association. He served in this position, with Rev. R. J. Harp, until the close of the war. In 1865 and '66 he taught in Summerfield College; in 1869 and 1870 he was Presiding Elder of the Columbus District, but still in the Mobile Conference. At the end of the year 1870, by change of Conference boundaries, Dr. Wier became a member of the North Mississippi Conference. For eight years he was president of the Verona Female College. During this time he was pastor at Verona six years and at Okolona one year. In 1879 he was Presiding Elder of the Holly Springs District. In 1880 he was principal of the Grenada Institute and in connection with his college duties he supplied the Winona and Vaiden charge. In 1880 to 1884 he was again Presiding Elder of the Columbus District. From 1884 to 1888 he served the Sardis and Davis Chapel charge. In 1889 he taught in the North Mississippi College and served the Okolona Station. Two years, 1890 and 1891, he was pastor of the Starkville Station. For the two succeeding quadrenniums he was Presiding Elder on the Columbus and Sardis Districts respectively. From 1899 to 1903 he was stationed at Lexington and Tchula; in 1904 and 1905 at Booneville; and in 1905 and 1906 at Coldwater and Love's Station. This was his last regular work. He had been in the effective ranks for fifty-two years. At the Annual Conference in 1906 he was given the superannuate relation. Dr. Wier was a delegate to the General Conference in 1882 in Nashville, Tenn., and in 1886 in Richmond, Va.

It was here in Coldwater in 1906 that his faithful wife closed her beautiful and consistent Christian life. For more than forty-eight years she had been the loving, sympathetic, and helpful companion of her husband. Ten children blessed their union. One died in infancy; seven sons and two daughters lived to be grown. One son, Baker A., died some years ago in Fort Smith, Ark.; and another William Benson, died in Little Rock in December, 1919. Dr. Wier is survived by five sons and two daughters: Howard Baker, of Fort Smith, Ark.; Frank L and Robert K., of Starkville, Miss.; John Stuart, of Charlotte, N. C.; T. C., of Fort Smith, Ark.; Mrs. A. W. Bonnell and Mrs. K. M. Rowe, of Oklahoma.

Rev. W. S. Harrison, who prepared the larger part of this memoir, wrote in 1908 the following paragraph:

"Dr. Wier was blessed in advantages far above many of his brethren in the ranks of the Methodist ministry. He was well born, well reared, and well educated. As a result he had the self-mastery which gave him due poise in any presence, before any congregation. With pleasing maners, unfailing good humor and manifest love for his kind, he has been always the ideal of the ministerial gentleman. He is rather below medium size, erect, alert and the embodiment of health and activity. His voice is clear, strong, disciplined and of extraordinary compass. Needless to say, he is a strong preacher, delivering his sermons in well-wrought thinking and precise language. Even now, past four score years, he preaches with great vigor, scarcely below the efforts of his palmy days. He is in frequent demand by the pastors near Starkville, where he now resides, and in response to their requests he preached last year fifty two times."

Dr. Wier was a man much beloved in the charges where he served. In Starkville, Miss., where he spent several years both as Presiding Elder and as pastor in charge and the greater part of his supernumerary and his superannuate days, few men have been more greatly missed. He went frequently into the homes of the people in every station of life and he went to comfort and to help. He always had a kind word for the children, a kindly interest in the young, friendly counsel for the mature, sympathy for the aged and love for all.

On August 29, 1920, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Bonnell, in Muskogee, Okla., Dr. Wier passed from earth to his heavenly reward. He was in the ninety-third year of his life and in the sixty-sixth of his ministry. His remains were brought from Muskogee to Starkville. The funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Church by the pastor, assisted by Rev. H. M. Young, Rev. Chester Ray, and Rev. W. H. Hill of the local Presbyterian Church. During the services every business house in Starkville was closed, and a large assembly of relatives and friends followed his remains to the cemetery, where he was laid beside his beloved wife to await the resurrection day.

Dr. Wier was born in the heroic days of this great republic and in the midst of the best of the ante-bellum civilization. In thought, word and deed he was the ideal of the best of that day. He was frequently spoken of as the typical old-time Southern Christian gentleman. He never left a sting in the hearts of his associates, he always seemed a stranger to impure thoughts, and he never let an unchased word pass his lips. He was good without knowing it and true without professing it. Where he served, men felt that a man of God had ministered. Toward his brethren he had no place in his heart for suspicion, distrust, and hate. He wept with them that weep and rejoiced with them that rejoiced. He hated sin but he loved the sinner. He never forgot that the Lord was his Master, and as he walked along life's way, he leaned on Him that is invisible and yet is ever present. His life was among the greatest of sermons and his death a glorious victory.

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's poy."
